

The Crying Earth

The world was all land,
Where animals roamed free,
But this was banned,
So look what it came to be,
Black car, blue car, red and white,
Now this is a serious fight,
No wonder why the air is polluted, I'll say,
It's from all the cars on the highway,

The trees were cut down,
But they were oh so pretty,
But look at it now,
It was replaced with an ugly building,
Then the boats in the lake,
Killed many fish,
Please make it STOP!
It's my only wish!

With the hunters killing so many,
I'm surprised they get a penny,
They call it a game, yet it is a war,
A war that we didn't keep score!
The world was all land,
Where animals roamed free,
But this was banned,
So look what it came to be!
