

POKEMON GO

It was a dark and stormy night everyone was asleep but not me. I was waiting for the new game, POKEMON GO. Everyone talked about it my friends, family members and all sorts of other people. It was pokemon in real life but even better than the cartoon shows. First up you download the app then type in your google account after that you go to a screen with three starter pokemon one is named Bulbasaur the second name is Charmander the last name is Squirtle. When I was done that I started my POKEMON journey. So my journey had begun, I was walking back from the park I could not believe my eyes a NINETALES. First up I grab my pokeball then I tried to catch him, I caught him oh wait he escaped NO!!!! He ran away. How could this happen to me, I liked that pokemon so badly. But then a Weedle! He's a bad pokemon but I still want him. I got him, his combat power was 73. Meanwhile I got more weedles and more. I deleted all of them except for 1. I evolved my weedle to a Kakuna. Level up, I'm level two. Oh look a Drowzee in my house, I'm going to catch him. I grabbed my pokeball and here I go, I caught him yay. No pokemon can escape from me. Level up, I'm level 3 now I caught many more pokemon on my journey like Gastly, Caterpie, Krabby, Shellder, Pidgey and many more. A few days pokemon go. A new pokemon just spawned I forget his name but he's amazing i'm gonna catch him. Yes I got him he's really good. I want to catch all those pokemon. Im going to have a rest from pokemon go bye guys and have a great time catching those pokemon.
