

Story of my life

I was born on November 7, 2001 when I was born the doctors told my mom I had cancer they said it would occur later in my life. My mom and dad were happy parents I had a little brother named Jaelyn, my dad was a construction worker and my mom was a music teacher. At school it was music some of my friends knew that I had cancer some didn't two minutes later I felt dizzy then I saw a big blur then I fell to ground.

When I woke up I was in a medic room there was a water bag tube attached to my wrist and a beeping sound that was going on every second. Then my parents walked into the room they saw that I was awake they came closer and said "sweetie the time has come", my dad said. I saw my mom crying I said ",mom it's okay I'll be okay." "Oh sweetie you're so brave," my mom said. The doctors took me to the examination room to see what kind of disease I had they took blood test and a x-ray. After they told my mom, dad and me the results. I had heart cancer.

It's been a month now that I've been in the hospital I was so tired of staying in the same medic room", what are they doing with my heart." I sneaked out of the room the lady beside my stall had a broken leg she was sleeping I carefully tried not to wake her, after I snuck out of my room it was time to get pass the hallway I had to make sure that no doctors or nurses were looking then I saw a room that said staff only I saw no one walk in there for the past hour maybe that's where there deciding what to do with my heart. I carefully sneaked into the room and I was startled as my hand touched the table and I felt something gross and watery I turned around and I saw a dead swan and goo and blood coming out of it I quickly ran out of the room and went back to my room I washed my hands immediately. I accidently woke up the lady beside me she said, "oh dear are you alright." "Yeah I'm fine thanks for asking," as I said guilty.

The doctor said that it was okay for me to go home with my parents for the night and I could go back to school for the week they gave me some pills that I need to take daily to make my heart strong and healthy. They said that next week I would have to come back and they would do a surgery.

When I got home I went straight to bed and tomorrow I could go to school. It was the next day and I was already dressed but nervous "what were the kids gonna think since what happened last month," I said in my head. My mom dropped me off at school, when I got to school the kids didn't even care we just did math for the whole hour and then we went out for recess I was playing soccer with a group of friends then my friend Mikayla kicked the ball in the tree " ,sorry guys I'll get a new ball tomorrow," she said. "It's okay I'll get it," I said.I climbed up the tree to the very top I put my hand on the last branch and then it snapped I was falling and then suddenly wings shot out of my back they were white and big I saw the wings I flew up to the top of the tree grabbed the ball and threw the ball to my friends they had their mouths open.

After school I ate my dinner and tried going to sleep

" ,how did i fly mmmm maybe the swan goo gave me powers .The rest of the week passed and it was time to go back to the hospital it was time for my surgery my mom started to cry, I went in, after an hour I came out my chest was sore but I was happy, when I tried to fly I couldn't I kept trying but it wouldn't work maybe it only worked when I had cancer but I'm okay now and that's the best thing ever and that's the story of my life.
