

GOING TO HIGH SCHOOL

CHAPTERS 1,2,3

A long time ago a little girl named Paige loved “high school when she was in” grade 5. She always wanted to go to “high school” because she had good dreams about “High school” because Paige loved baby dolls and in high school you get to take care of fake Babies and get to use a baby carey and a “baby stroller”. She was so “Excited” and then when she got to 6 she was waiting and waiting and waiting and then “she’s like when can i go to high school” and then when she went to grade 7 and so on and so on, until she got to “grade 9 she was so happy” And then she “Noticed” that she was at the wrong “high school” and then she’s like “NNNNNNNNNNN OOOOOOOOOO”

And then she’s like i have to leave I have to leave I’ve got to go to the Principal and say i went to the “wrong high school” so i need to quit thank you so much ya i’m “Finally” going to the right “High School”.So then when Paige went to the right “high school” she was so happy. But she was not happy that she had to wait to go to grade 11 and grade 12 to take care of fake babies and then she’s “like to the Principal i have to wait till grade 11 and grade 12 that take’s 2 Years” and the Principal said yup you’ve gotta wait patiently and if keep on complaining i’m going to make you stay in grade 9 for 1 more year do u like that better the principal said. "Then Paige is like no i won't complain anymore said Paige." "The principal said ah thought so." "Then Paige said bye gotta go to class now before i miss some class homework and then i have to do it at home and i have to go to the mall and then i don't want to do homework before go because i don't like high school said Paige" "Then the principal said ya go to class and don't miss any homework said the principal make sure you introduce your self to the class and say the principal told you to introduce your self to the class said the principal" And then Paige said to the principal no problem we better stop talking before i have homework and then i will get to class late bye thank you for your help.
