It was Monday, Penny Carson was so nervous, because it was Penny's first day of high school at Firework Academy. As she stood on the steps of the school she thought to herself new year new opportunities and took a deep breath and stepped in. Firework Academy was a huge building, it was made out of big bricks and surrounded by green grass and beautiful trees. As Penny was walking to the office for her class schedule she saw a girl with long brown hair and pretty brown eyes and she was wearing a nice pink short dress with a cross over purse teasing another girl about her glasses. Penny rushed over right away those glasses make you look like a dork said the girl, hey! What do you think you're doing started Penny. Teaching this girl a lesson in fashion, the girl said, well if I was as rich as you I could afford some manners said Penny. Whatever you're wasting my time said the girl, then her and her friends left. Thanks said the girl with the glasses, oh pardon me I'm Grace it's nice to meet you, I'm Penny but don't let her get to you your amazing. I won't, Jennifer has been a bully since the seventh grade. Is this your first year of high school? Yes I'm really nervous I hope that the year brings good opportunities, me to said Penny. Oh gosh it's getting late we better get are schedule!, they rushed to the office were the principle was waiting. Principle Swift was almost the best principle in the country! He was fair, fun, helping, caring and he always did cool fun things for the school, good morning lady's principle swift said good morning they replied. Welcome to Firework academy I'm Headmaster Swift nice to meet you, here for your schedule I presume, yes Grace replied well here you go Yes thank you said Penny good luck on your first day girls, thank you Mr. Swift. I have math class with Mrs. Benet what about you asked Grace? Same! replied Penny let's go! When they reached the classroom Mrs. Bennet was standing at the front of the class the girls took their seats. Ok class I am Mrs. Bennet and I will be your math teacher, now let's begin. We will start with some simple math questions, Penny would you care to answer three questions come on up. Ok what is $1050+394$? That would be 1,444 Mrs. Benet. Very good miss Carson next question, what is $2,461+1524$? The answer is 3,985. Excellent final question what is $5278+7823$? The answer is 13,101. Amazing! Jennifer would you try? Ok, said Jennifer what is $1458+5647$? Um 7689? I'm sorry that is incorrect what about $2364+1273$? oh that's um... 4768? No that is wrong let's try $7895 + 6547$? 11236? That is wrong I'm sorry. ok on the leader board of class is in third place is Aaron Matthews. Good job Aaron in second place Grace Stacks good job Grace now in first place is Penny Carson! Amazing job Penny! After class Penny was at her locker when suddenly Aaron came over to her... hi Aaron said oh hey Penny replied great job in math class today you really aced the math problems thanks you did excellent to. So maybe you wanted to get a smoothie after school, sure I would love to. After school Aaron picked up Penny from her house as they were in the car they got to know each other better they laughed they made faces they joked and Penny and Aaron both felt something thieve never felt before it was a strange felling and as the months went by the felling grew and Aaron got up his courage and said Penny you're the most amazing person I have ever met your talented and beautiful and I need to ask will you go to the valentine's day dance with me? Penny didn't hesitate I think you amazing and smart also the most amazing guy I've met, of course I will go with you. Penny asked Grace if she would help her get ready of the dance and when she said yes they immediately rushed to the mall then the big night arrived Aaron and Penny danced all night when suddenly Aaron took her into the garden and said words that would change their life Penny I love you, I love you to, and so they all lived happily ever after. The end
