

There's a Spark in Echo

Quinn

1

This is the story of the girl who accomplished amazing things in two days. Some people that were discouraging tried to bring her down, but they did not succeed. This girl's name was Echo Evie Lynn. Echo was your average thirteen year old. Echo wanted to be treated like she was an adult. Echo was in grade 8. Echo did dance and gymnastics. Most of her friends did dance and gymnastics too. Echo played soccer with her friends at recess. She had a very annoying six year old little sister named Cloe.

One day, Echo and her friends walked to school. As soon as they got there the bell rang. They ran inside their classroom. There was a note on her desk saying she was going to teach the class for the whole day. The note said the teacher was going to a wedding. Echo taught the class for the whole day. They did art, science, gym and math. None of the other teachers even noticed that Echo's teacher wasn't there. That's because Echo could accomplish amazing things. After school Echo ran home and got ready for her gymnastics competition.

Echo was waiting to go on stage for her gymnastics competition. The next thing she knew she was heading on stage. When the music played she started jumping and twirling through the air. She did an aerial then landed in a perfect split. As she stared into the crowd she saw her family cheering and she realized her routine was over. She ran off and hugged her family. She had no time to talk. It was time for the award ceremony. Echo ran on stage for the award ceremony. She got almost every award. She was very happy. It was an amazing day. When she got home, she fell into her bed and fell asleep.

The next morning Echo got a call from her friend Romoni. Romoni said she was robbed. Someone took Romoni's trophy from gymnastics and all of her jewellery. She said the robber left a note. The note said, I WILL BE BACK AGAIN. Echo remembered there was no school. So she walked to the local police station. She told them about Romoni. Echo gave them her plan to stop the next robbery.

The police officer laughed in her face and said "This plan will never work!"

Echo said calmly "It will work. I believe in it." Suddenly, her phone rang. It was a gymnastics scout! They wanted her to join the Canadian Gymnastics Team! She said yes and they told her where to register. She hung up the phone. Echo was excited but she realized that her friend Romoni needed her more than ever. As she was leaving she said to the police officer "My plan will work. Watch me."

She went to Romani's ranch at the edge of town. Echo told Romani about her plan. Romani agreed with the plan but Echo had to sleep over to help if it all went wrong. So she did. Echo and Romani set up the trap. The robber came at 7 O'clock that night and went right into the trap perfectly. They called the police. The officer from earlier said she was sorry for laughing in Echo's face. The police officer said "Echo you have accomplished amazing things." From that day Echo would be treated like an adult.

Echo inspired many girls around the country and the ranch.

The End.